

Name:

Date:

Making Inferences - Graphic Organizer

What is an inference?

Authors don't always tell you everything in a story. Sometimes, you have to figure things out on your own. An inference is a smart guess you make by combining what you already know with clues from the story.

Use the graphic organizer below to make inferences about the story you are reading.

Title _____

Direct Quotation- What does the text say ?	Inference- What conclusion can you make ?

Reasoning - How do you know ?

Direct Quotation- What does the text say ?	Inference- What conclusion can you make ?

Reasoning - How do you know ?

Direct Quotation- What does the text say ?	Inference- What conclusion can you make ?

Reasoning - How do you know ?